

NAMES: _____

1930s PARAGRAPH PLANNING EXERCISE

With a partner, plan a formal paragraph that answers ONE of the following questions:

- Did supply OR demand problems play a bigger role in causing the Great Depression in Canada in the 1930s?
OR
- Did Canada's experiences in the Great Depression play a role in determining how our government functions today economically?
OR
- Which political party developed the best response/solution to the depression?

TOPIC SENTENCE: _____

POINT #1: _____

PROOF#1: _____

LINK/EXPLANATION: _____

POINT #2: _____

PROOF#2: _____

LINK/EXPLANATION: _____

POINT #3: _____

PROOF#3: _____

LINK/EXPLANATION: _____

CONCLUDING SENTENCE: _____

CHC2D

1930s PARAGRAPH PLANNING RUBRIC

CRITERIA	BELOW STANDARD	LEVEL ONE 50-60%	LEVEL TWO 61-70%	LEVEL THREE 71-82%	LEVEL FOUR 83-100%
APPLICATION: Topic sentence, closing sentence summarizes answer to the focus question (2 marks)	Omits topic and/or closing sentence	-Topic and/or closing sentence separate from rest of paragraph -limited answer or unclear answer	-T.S fails to include 3 points -closing sums up most main points	-T.S includes all three points -closing sums up all the points	-T.S summarizes main idea -closing effectively recaps main idea
APPLCIATION: -3 point sentences are clear, exact, and connect to focus supply/demand (3 marks)	Topic sentences are blurred with proof sentences; absence of some points	Some point sentences are combined with proof or are not clear	-Few point sentences are combined with proof OR are not clear	Point sentences are separate and clear	Point sentences provide link to question without repetition
APPLICATION Proof sentences provide relevant, accurate evidence (3 marks)	Fails to provide accurate or relevant proof	Proof is incomplete or inaccurate, too general on some aspects	Proof is incomplete or inaccurate, too general in a few examples	All proof is accurately and completely described	Proof is most relevant for point and is accurate and complete
APPLICATION Link sentences explain how or why point explains answer to supply/demand (3 marks)	Unable to explain how or why point/proof links to supply/demand	Explains how or why on only some of the points	Explains how or why point answers focus question/topic sentence for most of the points	Explains how or why points answers question/topic sentence for all of the points	Explains with clarity and insight how or why on all three points (connects to topic sentence/question

Comments: