

Media:

This element of your portfolio is an opportunity for you to demonstrate your understanding of big ideas in a more creative format.

This media creation cannot be a Power Point as we will not be using the data projector for presentations.

It could be: a poster, a book cover, a collage, a story board for a movie trailer or P.S.A., a cartoon, a mock up of a website, wiki, / blog, a mock up of a video game board game or iPad app, a found poem, or any other suggestion that comes up in the media workshop.

You may choose to share your media creation during a group seminar or you may choose to submit it for my eyes only in your portfolio.

Please be sure to choose a format that you are comfortable with.

*Note that research is helpful here in terms of looking for samples and developing your own criteria for an effective media piece. YOU MUST CITE YOUR INSPIRATION
